Aylsham Roman Project Newsletter

Vol 7 Issue 7 2023

Welcome to the May newsletter, although, at the time of writing, the weather is not exactly May-like!

August Fortnight update

During our two weeks in August, Monday-Friday weeks beginning July 31st and August 7th, we can confirm that Britannia Archaeology will be with us on both Tuesdays, with a talk in the morning on both days from Martin and Dan, and on the first Tuesday afternoon, a talk from Andy and on the second a talk from Alice. Two days not to miss!

We hope to have all details ready to send out in the June letter - it's looking good, so make sure you keep the two weeks free to visit us.

ARP Friends

A gentle reminder to those of you who are Friends to make sure you have renewed. There will be a charge for talks etc in the summer and there will be an offer for those of you who are Friends.

It's just £10 for the year and does help with our fundraising efforts. Thank you to everyone who has been renewing these past few weeks.

Woodgate Garden Show Help

The Garden show is on Saturday 10th and Sunday 11th June, at Woodgate Nursery.

The marquee will be up and we could do with help on Friday 9th June from 0930, for a couple of hours, to get the tables from the portacabin and set up inside the marquee. We also need to collect the boxes of books which are in the garage behind the cafe. These then need setting out on the tables. Any help really appreciated, please email if you are available.

Don't forget to bring any books that we can sell and any prizes for our tombola. These would be appreciated before the weekend, so we can get prizes labelled. They can be brought to the field on a Tuesday morning between 1000 and 1200, or taken to the Nursery shop any other time during the week. On the Saturday and Sunday, if you can spare any time to man the tent, this would also be appreciated.

Tesco Blue Tokens

It's the last few days, it ends May 31st, so do please keep going and placing the tokens in our box, again, if you have already been doing this, very many thanks.

Bank Holiday Weekend

Depending on weather, hope to be in the Nursery over this May weekend for a couple of hours in the morning, so do come and see us then, with any contributions for anything mentioned above.

All merchandise on sale too!

Blue Tit nest

It's the last week for watching the live stream, as the little ones are now tweeting and starting to exercise their wings. Copy and paste this link to watch the mayhem!

Make us an Offer!

When our new cabin arrived, it had some second-hand furniture inside and although we have decided to keep some of it, we have the following five items up for sale. Do come and have a look and make us an offer. All donations will go to the purchase of shelving. As mentioned earlier, we hope to be at the Nursery during the Bank Holiday weekend. Email if you would be interested in looking at any of these items and we can arrange to unlock the cabin. We will also be on the field on Tuesday mornings 1000 - 1200.

1. Long thin cabinet, with hanging clips, no key.
2. 4 drawer filing cabinet, needing a little TLC!
3. 2 drawer filing cabinet
4. Light blue office chair, slight split in seat
5. Pin board with wood surround 3 ft X 2 ft
