Aylsham Roman Project Newsletter

Vol 9 Issue 2 December 2024

It's almost the end of December, where has the year gone? Since finishing in August we've been quite busy!

Talks etc!

Pleased to say we have given two talks since discovering our third Roman pottery kiln.

These have been an afternoon visit to the Cawston Phoenix Ladies and again an evening with the Aylsham WI. We enjoyed both. If you are a member of a group that might like to hear about what we have been finding, please email us.

We again went to the charity day at Mannington Hall, always a lovely day and plenty of people interested!

The end of September saw us in the town hall for the Aylsham History Day. Lots of people, always a great day, if you missed it, look out for it next year!

At the end of September, we took delivery of a secondhand shipping container. Both our cabins are full and, actually, this is pretty full too!!

The end of October saw us at the Friendship Hall for a talk to the Aylsham Older Peoples Association, some of whom had visited on site in August.

December saw us in Aylsham Parish Church for the Christmas Tree Festival. We were pleased to be invited and enjoyed decorating and being part of such a lovely event. The church with 50 trees looked wonderful. For those unable to visit, it was decorated with many smiley faces taken during our digs. Will leave you all to guess who was, (dare I say it), the "fairy" on the top!

We were also there on the Saturday when groups were invited to set up in the church. Another chance to meet Friends etc who came in to the church that morning.

Something to think about while waiting to digest your turkey and festive delights.

Who is this Ghostly figure and what is it doing?!

And finally,
a message from Owlbert,

have a joyous Christmas one and all

T-wit t-woo!

Thank you to all ARP Friends who have supported us again this year, and anyone else who has contributed, helped, supported, in any way.

You are all greatly appreciated and we hope to see you again in the coming year.
